Company Description

At Developing World Connections (DWC), we work to make long-term, sustainable solutions in South America, Africa, and Asia. Based in Kamloops, BC, DWC is focused on empowering women, emergency response and community development projects. With the guidance of our partners on the ground, we fund scholarships, implement food security initiatives, respond to natural disasters, and build schools for some of the world's most disadvantaged individuals and communities. You will be joining a small team of passionate, dedicated individuals committed to changing the world.

Job Description

Join the DWC team and help change lives. You will be working directly for DWC and securing donations for our field work. There's no 'middleman' involved.

Supportive environment with ample training! No Commission.

You will be working with DWC's Senior Manager of Philanthropy and benefitting from close to a decade of fundraising experience. You will receive access to training materials and work in a supportive environment free from commission-based targets. We believe in developing relationships at DWC and want to ensure that every new donor knows how much we appreciate their support.

You will be working to secure new donations on the phone, in-person and business to business.

- Extensive training period in-office to get you familiar and comfortable with DWC's mission.
- Flexible scheduling – you can choose the days you work (min. 30h per week).
- This is a response-based opportunity, meaning you will have daily, weekly, and monthly objectives over the course of your employment. Regular feedback and training will occur to ensure your success.
- Passionate, dedicated individuals committed to making positive change in the world are encouraged to apply. No prior experience is required, but welcomed.
- High performing staff have the potential to travel internationally to observe and deepen their understanding of DWC's programming and impact first-hand!

Requirements

- Engaging members of the public and aligning with them on DWC's mission abroad to secure donations.
- Outgoing personality and ability to thrive in a fast-moving team environment.
- Coachable and adaptable to changing situations.
- Comfortable working indoors and outdoors.
- At ease with performance-based positions that require autonomy.
- Experience with or the ability to discuss monetary transactions with potential new donors.
- Answering donor questions about DWC's programming.
- This position does require in person attendance.
